

Inspection of Occupational Safety and Health in the Oil and Gas Sector (IOSHOG) Course

Who can benefit from this course?

This course is suitable for Occupational Safety Inspectors/Executives in Public Authority, Health and Safety Representatives/Officers, Health and Safety Duty Holders in corporations, with statutory duty to supervise the compliance with regulation of Occupational Safety and Health (OSH) and other employee issues.

Pre-course requirements

Understand the importance of management responsibilities associated with the inspection of occupational safety and health in oil sector to check compliance.

English language skill level 6 or higher in IELTS, or equivalent is recommended, but not mandatory, for those whom the first language is not English.

Course Duration: 5 days

Course Timing: 9:00 am to 5:00 pm

Course Venue: To be confirmed by email

(This course can be delivered in-company subject to 6 weeks lead time)

Course Content

- Learning from incidents
- Hazards inherent in oil Industry
- Risk management techniques used in the oil Industry
- Hydrocarbon process safety
- Occupational Safety and Health Management System in the oil sector
- Preparation and conduction of an inspection visit
- Emergency preparedness measures

Assessment

The course will involve participants in discussions, case studies, group work and site inspection as required to help them to understand the challenges and how to manage inspection.

Certification

SETA will issue certificate for those who successfully completed the course and assessment.

ALL COURSE NOTES/WORK FOLDER AND REFERENCE MATERIAL ARE PROVIDED

For detail please contact: Elan Kandaswamy, SETA International Ltd, 18 Hammond Avenue, Whitehill Industrial Estate, South Reddish, Stockport SK4 1PQ, Greater Manchester, UK
Email: elan@setatraining.com Tel: +44 161 480 9822

SETA International is a wholly owned subsidiary of SETA Training and Advisory Services which is fully accredited by:

